Holy Rosary Catholic School Internet Use Policy

Use of the Internet is a privilege, not a right; inappropriate use will result in a cancellation of this privilege. When using a computer at Holy Rosary Catholic School, you agree to the following policy:

Responsible and ethical uses of the Internet resources include the following:

- Using the electronic information resources at Holy Rosary Catholic School in a responsible manner, consistent with the educational and informational purpose for which they are provided.
- Not using the Internet for any unauthorized, unethical, or illegal purpose.
- Respecting the privacy of others by not misrepresenting oneself as another user.
- Not attempting to modify or gain access to files, passwords, or data belonging to others.
- Not seeking unauthorized access to any computer system or damaging or altering software components of any network or database.
- Not sending receiving or displaying text or graphics which may reasonably be construed as obscene.
- Not making any changes to the setup or configuration of the software or hardware.

Internet User Agreement

Holy Rosary Catholic School users will not participate in unauthorized chat groups, forums or other non-school related collaboration sites while on school computers.

Any student found to be disclosing disseminating, or using personal identification information of a minor in an unauthorized manner will be reported to the appropriate law enforcement agencies. This person will also be prohibited from further use of computers while attending Holy Rosary Catholic School.

Misuse or abuse of the computer or the Internet access may result in the suspension of computer privilege. Consequences will be determined between principal, parents, and teacher based on the offense and circumstances.

Disclaimer: Holy Rosary Catholic School is not responsible for the validity or reliability of the information found on the Internet. Users are cautioned that the accuracy, completeness, and timeliness of information found on the Internet vary widely.
