Principal's Corner

It was beyond heartwarming to hear so many students exclaim, "I missed you!" to their teachers and staff as they came back to school on Monday. We missed them too. They say it's important to find your "why", at Holy Rosary, with students like this, it is easy.

Welcome back!

Always Grateful,
Carina VanPelt

4th Grade - January corporal work of Mercy: Visit the Sick

- Please donate to the Idaho Community Foundation's Covid-19 Response Fund to help those affected by the pandemic.
- Students will be creating cards and videos to share with residents of local nursing homes to cheer them up during COVID-19 restrictions.
- Students will pray the COVID-19 Novena beginning on January 4 and ending on January 12. We encourage the school and the parish to pray it along with us.

Noon Dismissal

We will continue noon dismissal on Fridays. In an effort to be fair, there will be no charge for daycare from noon to 2:00 PM.

Homebound Ministry

Are you able to call, talk, and listen to someone who lives alone and is unable to leave their home? The parish is looking for volunteers to connect with homebound parishioners via phone calls. The commitment for this could be as little as 1 hour a week. Please call the school for more information. We would allow this to count for volunteer hours this year.

Family Faith Formation

Chalk Doorway Blessing: An Epiphany Tradition

January 6 is the traditional date of Epiphany, when we celebrate Jesus' birth becoming known to the wise men and the wider world. A wonderful way for your family to celebrate Epiphany is to join in the tradition of marking the doorway of your home with blessed chalk as you ask God to bless your home and family.

Tomorrow Father Ron will ask God's blessing upon our school as he uses blessed chalk to mark its entrance with a traditional Epiphany inscription: the initials of the three kings—Caspar, Melchior, and Balthasar— between the digits of the current year, as shown in the diagram. The initials CMB also stand for Christus mansionem benedicat, Latin for "may Christ bless this house." The inscription is meant to remind all who enter and leave the building that, like the wise men, we should seek Jesus. Let's all invite Christ into our homes and hearts more fully this new year!
