FROM FATHER FLORES:

As Catholics, we can trace the origin of our church all the way back to Jesus! Our first pope was St. Peter, and the headquarters of our universal church is in Rome.

Do you know which church building in Rome the pope officially presides over? Hint: it's not St. Peter's Basilica. The answer is here.

November's Corporal Work of Mercy: Bury the Dead 6th Grade will...

- Lead Mass on All Souls Day (November 2nd)
- Provide all classes with slips of paper for people to write down the names of their dearly departed, and tape the paper around the cross in the hall along with the Eternal Rest Prayer
- Visit Rose Hill Cemetery to rake leaves and provide general clean-up
- Participate along with the entire school in saying the Eternal Rest Prayer every morning as part of morning meeting:

Eternal rest grant unto them,
O Lord.
And let Your perpetual light
shine upon them.
May they rest in peace.
Amen.

Sunday Mass is part of the life of a practicing Catholic and it is a moral obligation (Catechism of the Catholic Church 2180-2181).

We encourage all parents, particularly those with children preparing to receive First Holy Communion, to assure attendance at Sunday Mass and Holy Days of Obligation for your family.

Any of the following masses at St. John Paul II Parish in Idaho Falls fulfill your Sunday mass obligation:

Saturday:

5:00PM Christ the King English
7:00PM Santo Rosario Español

Sunday:

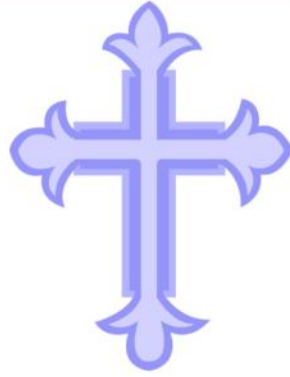

8:00AM Holy Rosary English
9:30AM Christ the King English
11:30AM Santo Rosario Español
1:00PM Cristo Rey Español
